

Two girls overdue

April 14, 1979

At 2:30 AM we received a call from the Banning substation that two girls had walked away from camp in the early evening and had not returned by their promised time. Before reaching the rendezvous point, the pagers went off with a 10-22 (cancel mission). After checking with the Sheriff's Department the following day we were told that two girls had found their way back to camp while we were still enroute.
