On Monday afternoon at 5 p.m. RMRU got a call to help look for a missing mountain biker who had not returned from an afternoon ride. RMRU member Dana Potts, who lives near Corona, was in touch with the local sheriff who was going to call Potts as soon as more information was known. Within 30 minutes a helicopter had spotted the missing biker, picked him up, and returned him to safety. No one from RMRU had left home yet.

RMRU is a volunteer search and rescue team that covers Riverside County and assists other teams with search and rescue efforts in other counties. Each member purchases their own equipment and takes time off work, without compensation, to participate in search and rescue missions. Team equipment is purchased from contributions from the community. We are a non-profit organization and are funded by donations from people like you.
