The first call for 2014 was just about like the last call for 2014. Another evening call came at 8:30pm that two women were overdue from a hike to San Jacinto Peak from the Tramway. Again the Tramway Officials had kept a few people around that would take us up to the upper station as soon as we could get there. Just as RMRU personal were arriving at the Tramway at 10:15pm the two women walked into the Ranger Station in Long Valley.

RMRU Members Involved: Pete Carlson, Cameron Dickinson, Ty Whittersheim, and Gwenda Yates.

RMRU is a volunteer search and rescue team that covers Riverside County and assists other teams with search and rescue efforts in other counties. Each member purchases their own equipment and takes time off work, without compensation, to participate in search and rescue missions. Team equipment is purchased from contributions from the community. We are a non-profit organization and are funded by donations from people like you.
